

Diligent 360

Become a Strategic Advisor to the Board

Driven by pressures of the business and the ever-changing regulatory landscape, the board of directors looks to the internal audit team for a comprehensive understanding of all audits and potential risk exposure so they can make timely, data-driven decisions for the organization. Increasingly, internal audit teams across the globe are expected to provide assurance and strategic insight into risk – often without an increased budget or team size.

Diligent 360 enables internal auditors to easily create audit reports and surface the important insights they uncover using Diligent Audit Management, directly into Diligent Boards – the leading board management software. This ensures that the audit committee and the board have visibility on internal audit’s findings and recommendations, elevating their work from a checkbox to a leading voice on risk and opportunities for the organization.

How does Diligent 360 work?

1. Create your audit report in the Activity Center App within the Diligent HighBond platform.
2. Review and finalize your report. When you are ready to share, click the “Connect to Boards” button.
3. Your organization’s committee administrator or board secretary will be notified and can share the report to your directors or officers.
